Themes in bullying, acceptance, and finding the beauty within yourself make for a theatre experience that will not soon be forgotten!"

Porkchop Productions presents

a virtual performance of "The Princess and the Veggies"
All ages
July 12-26
(Contact the library for the performance link and password on July 12 or later.)
From the Porkchop Productions webpage: "Our fractured flip of this classic fairy tale will change the way you look at it (and vegetables) forever! There is a stink in the castle (literally) and it's coming from under the royal bed! When news gets out that the princess hasn't been eating her veggies, the entire kingdom goes on a mission to foil her finicky feats. Unforgettable characters, side-splitting laughs, and perilous predicaments highlight this story about healthy eating, exercise, and smart food choices. As the old adage goes, you won't know you like it, until you try it!
